CHURCH RULLETIN June 11 Червня – 2017 Перковний вісник

Неділя Всіх Святих

Тропар (8): З висоти зійшов Ти, Милосердний, і триденне погребення прийняв Ти, щоб нас звільнити від страждань. Життя і воскресіння наше, Господи, слава Тобі!

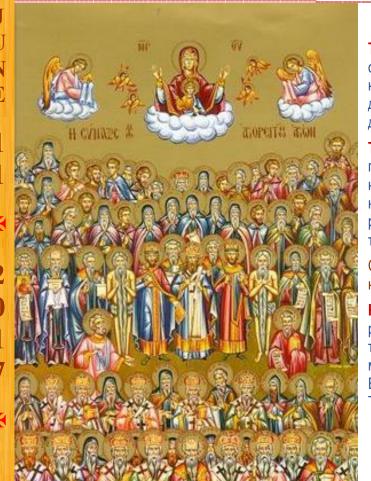

Тропар (4): Церква Твоя, Христе Боже, по всьому світі, немов багряницею і вісоном, прикрасилася кров'ю Твоїх мучеників, і через них кличе до Тебе. Пошли народові Твоєму Свої благодаті, даруй світові мир і душам нашим велику милість.

Слава Отцю, і Сину, і Святому Духові, і нині, і повсякчас, і на віки вічні. Амінь.

Кондак (8): Тобі Господи, Творцеві природи вселенна приносить, як первістки творіння, богоносних мучеників. Їхніми молитвами, Богородиці ради, збережи, Багатомилостивий, Церкву Твою і народ Твій в глибокому мирі.

З радія "Милосердний Самарянин"

Народне прислів'я каже, що святі по землі не ходять.

Очевидно, твердження правельне, бо ж нема нікого досконалого, нікого, що б завжди робив тільки добро, бо ми всі помиляємося. Усі стараємося іти дорогами справедливости, але почасто і сходимо з тих доріг. Не легко постійно зберігати свій внутрішний спокій, контролювати себе, не вибухати.

таких мужів і жінок, про яких моглиб ми сказати, що вони святі? Чи можемо інших коло себе вважати кращими від себе, бо ж нам здається, що ми завжди на правильній дорозі, а то інші провиняються. Коли б так ми, кожного дня, кожної години, кожної хвилини, могли сказати оцю молитву, що святі отці часто відмовляли: "Господи Ісуси Христе, Сину Божий помилуй мене грішного, або грішну", то ми б зрозуміли, що ми не кращі за інших, і що головно в нас повинна відбутися оця зміна, що поведе нас дорогою святости.

Так як перші Хрестияни могли бути святими і ми можемо. Спосіб, як ту святість осягнути, напевно буде різнитися від їхнього способу, бо ми живемо у інакших обставинах, і кожний і кожна з нас є інакшою особистістю. Не сміємо і не можемо 100 процентово насліду-Чи можемо, поглянувши надовкола себе, знайти вати когось, бо нічого з того не вийде. Кожна особа своїм шляхом має прямувати до єдности з Богом, до синівства Божого. Для нас святі є тільки доказом що можна осягнути царствпо Боже. Придивляймося їм пильно, але стараймося жити своїм життям любови. Хай усі в нас побачать Христа. Поможім тим, що потребують нашої допомоги і тим сповнимо закон Христовий. Таким способом ми будемо на добрій дорозі, щоб себе освятити, на дорозі, яка поведе нас до єдности з Богом, і напевно сповнемо завдання, що нам їх Учитель доручив.

Glory be to Jesus Christ! Glory for ever! Слава Ісусу Христу! Слава на Віки!

From "Good Samaritan" Ukr. Radio pr.

The first Sunday after Pentecost is dedicated to the commemoration of all the Saints. Sanctity is the work of the Holy Spirit and all Christian holiness is a fruit of Pentecost. Therefore we see a logical link between today's feast and that of last Sunday. The Feast of All Saints completes the cycle of movable feasts. Over four months ago, the Sunday of the Publican and the Pharisee, preceded the weeks of fasting for Great Lent, which led up to the central event of the whole Church Year - the Resurrection of Christ. And since then we have followed the services of Bright Week and the Sundays after it to the Ascension, Pentecost, and now today. The Feast of All Saints is the result of everything that has gone before it. The purpose of all the events in Christ's life, from His Conception to His Resurrection to Ascension and Pentecost - is to better prepare us to lead a life that is virtuous and saintly. That is the purpose of the Church, to make people holy. Today's Feast is the Feast of the identity of the Church, of her sacred personality. On this day the Eastern Church pays particular veneration to all those who are the fruit of the gifts of the Holy Spirit. We celebrate the feast all over the world. Our holy fathers instituted this feast and directed it to be kept after the feast of the Descent of the Holy Spirit, to set before us an example of how the coming of the Holy Spirit enabled them to attain sanctity.

The Servant of God, Metropolitan Andrew Sheptytsky said: "The veneration of the Saints not only does not oppose in any way the worship that is due God, but eminently contributes to it. We honor Saints as servants of God, as our heavenly protectors who intercede for us before God and obtain from Him, for us, the forgiveness of our sins and Heavenly graces." Holiness is not an achievement, it is a Grace. One of the many teachings of Christ implies: God is closer to sinners than to saints. I was still a voungster in grade school; when a priest explained this to me with such clarity. This is how he elaborated: "God in heaven holds each person by a string. When you sin, you cut the string. Once you show sincere repentance, God ties the string up again, making a knot and thereby bringing you just a wee bit closer to Him. Again and again your sins cut the string and with each further knot of grace, God keeps drawing you closer and closer to Him." As an adult, that image that was painted in my mind as a child has never left me - God drawing us closer, in spite of ourselves. And there is no greater comforter then the Holy Spirit to remind us of the presence of the Almighty in our lives.

The Gospel for today's liturgy is a selection of the sayings of our Lord which relate to the actual conditions of holiness: "He that loves their father and mother more than me is not worthy of me. And he that takes not his cross to follow after me is not worthy of me. Everyone that has forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake shall receive hundredfold and shall inherit everlasting life". Once again, our Lord brings us into the presence of His Cross and the personal renunciations that it involves. There is, however, a great difference between the way we read these words today and the way we read them during the preceding months; read after Pentecost, this invitation to sacrifice is now clothed in fire, in the light and power of the Holy Spirit. The Apostles did not really follow their Master on his painful journey until after the coming of the Holy Spirit. The Saints, whose collective feast we commemorate today, only carried the cross when they were under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. The cross that Jesus sets before our eves on this first Sunday after Pentecost - is a cross of fire - the fire of the Holy Spirit descending on the disciples.

All Christians are called to holiness by virtue of the sacrament of Baptism. Every person, regardless of status and condition of life, can become a Saint and is dutybound to strive after holiness of life. The Second Vatican Council encourages us to venerate the saints: "It is supremely fitting, therefore, that we love those friends and co-heirs of Jesus Christ who are also our brothers and sisters and extraordinary benefactors; that we render due thanks to God for them and suppliantly invoke them and have recourse to their prayers, their power, and their help." Our Lord, Jesus Christ addressed all people without exception when He said: "Therefore, be perfect as your Heavenly Father is perfect" (Matthew 5:48). Saint Paul also reminds us of our duty to pursue holiness, as: "This is the will of God, your sanctification". Holiness is living according to the commands of God and the Church; it is the daily fulfillment of God's wills, constant fidelity to the duties of one's state, or more briefly, holiness is the Gospel translated into action. Today, we honor the memory of those immortal flowers, the Apostles, the Martyrs, the Prophets, and all the Saints, who are the closest friends we have to God, and we thank them for their intercessions over the whole human race, as protectors of souls, healers of bodies, strong pillars of faith. The work of the Saints and their powerful intercession on our behalf remains an integral part of our Church and our faith.

It is with great joy that the Sisters Servants announce the 125th Jubilee of our Congregation in 2017, which was founded on August 27, 1892 in Zhuzhel, Ukraine, the first active women's congregation in the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church. We will have special prayer intentions listed in the newspaper. and on our website each month, and ask you to join us in prayer that the Sisters Servants may continue to serve the church another 125 years.

We are the first active Congregation for women in the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church, of the Byzantine tradition. We were founded in 1892 in Zhuzhel Ukraine, Blessed Josaphata Hordashevska is our foundress and Rev. Jeremiah Lomnitsky, OSBM & Rev. Cyril Seletsky are our co-founders. We began to minister in the United States in 1935 and were established as a province in 1959.

We will be celebrating the 125th Jubilee of our Congregation 2017 and continue to serve the needs of our people wherever we are. Our St. Joseph's Adult Care Home is a blessing to many elderly, and our St. Mary's Villa Spiritual,

Educational and Cultural Center provides a place to pray and deepen one's relationship to God. Our motto and goal for our sisters, who are small in number but mighty in spirit this year is:

"to Witness Christ's mercy to the world with dreams inspired by Mary and Josaphata."

We invite you to browse our website and contact us with your prayer intentions, or if you are interested in joining our Congregation, becoming a Lay Associate, would like to volunteer or make a donation to the Congregation.

Glory to God! Honor to Mary! Peace to Us!
