Сердечна подяка усім Вам, що працювали при цьогорічному пікніку. Дякуємо Пані Анні Мельник, що разом з іншими панями приготувала кухню на пікнік. Без кухні пікнік був би не можливий.

Дякуємо за ваші пожертви на кошики, дякуємо тим що постійно працюють щоб відповідно все приготувати. Не можу всіх згадати по імені, щоб когось не забути, але дякуємо всім, що у який небудь спосіб причинилися до успіху Хай Господь усіх щедро благословить!

Thanks are extended to all those, who prepared the food in the kitchen, to all those, who donated baskets or gave money for the baskets, to all those who brought baked goods and kitchen jar items, to all those who worked at our picnic whether in kitchen or at various places such as Theme baskets, Baked goods, Jar game, Outside Grill, Bar. Everything was excellent. Your hard work and dedication made it possible for this year's Church Picnic's success. It is a success without having raffle or any donations outside. Congratulations to the winners of the baskets! Thank you all for your support. May the Lord bless us all abundantly with His choicest blessings!

Ukrainian youth joined the Pope in Stations of the Cross wearing attire with portraits of children killed by Russia (RISU)

At the World Youth Days in Lisbon, Ukrainian youth took part in the Stations of the Cross, which took place on Friday evening with the participation of Pope Francis. They wore t-shirts featuring portraits of children who died in Ukraine at the hands of the Russian aggressor.

"This silent action at the World Youth Days is symbolic because these children will never speak their words. These children will never grow up. During this Stations of the Cross, our nation's wounds, our wounds, we want to unite with Christ's wounds. Resurrection comes through suffering and death. We have come here to witness Christ's suffering, suffering with all of Ukraine. And to encounter the risen Christ, for Ukraine to rise again," emphasized the co-initiator of the action, Deputy Head of the UGCC Youth Commission, Father Roman Demush. (See also photo on the back of this sheet)

"Finding God amid the night of one's fear is the key to human fortitude":

His Beatitude Sviatoslav

Amidst the depths of Ukraine's suffering, the Lord is calling every son and daughter of the Ukrainian people today: "Come to Me!". In a human sense, we would like to resist the elements to overcome other forces that evoke fear, as happened to the disciples in the boat without Jesus.

But Christ said: "No! Give up these senseless efforts and come to Me!" The one who finds the way to God amid fear and pain finds peace, tranquility and becomes unbreakable in the struggle to which the Lord calls him, stated the Father and Head of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church, His Beatitude Sviatoslav, in his sermon during the XI All-Ukrainian pilgrimage to the Galician Miraculous Icon of the Mother of God in Krylos, Prykarpattia.

"Finding God amid the night of our own fear, feeling His presence when we perhaps think of Him least of all," added the Primate, "is the key to fortitude, the key to the capacity of a person to walk with Christ over the waters of the abyss of our sea of life, which is filled with the horrors of war, pain, and death. Christ calls us to Himself, to His peace, because He alone is the key to our peace, strength, and victory."

While addressing the pilgrims, His Beatitude Sviatoslav said that the Krylos Hill, where the Lord God willed us to gather again today, has been a special time and space of meeting for a millennium — an encounter of man with God. Entire generations of our fathers and mothers in faith came here to meet God, to stand before His face, to feel His saving hand amidst the stormy waves of the sea of life...

"We have come to this All-Ukrainian pilgrimage to princely Halych to pray for Ukraine, our homeland, and our people. Standing here on this hill, I think all our thoughts go to our warriors, the sons, and daughters of Ukraine, who are now in the East and South of Ukraine, closing this time and space of prayer with their breasts. Today, our prayers and requests are for victory — the victory of Ukraine over this godless enemy who sows death," the Head of the Church emphasized. (UGCC Dep. for Inform.)

Українська молодь на Світових Днях Молоді в Лісабоні прийшла на Хресну дорогу, яка у п'ятницю ввечері відбулася за участі Папи Франциска, у футболках із портретами дітей, які загинули в Україні від рук російського агресора.
