CHURCH ROOF REPAIR

A number of years ago we initiated the Special Appeal Fund when we needed a new roof on the church. After the roof was completed, this fund was used for needed repairs in the church. Over the years people added to this fund in memory of their loved ones. At one time there was over $38,000.00 in the fund, at the present there is only at little over $12,000 left. In order to maintain the roof, a few months ago we had the roof inspected. This week we received the estimated quote of the cost of the repairs that are needed to maintain the integrity of the roof. This quote was $33,728.00. Any donations for the roof repair would be greatly appreciated

This is CYM Buffalo's 6th year participating and sending backpacks to children in Ukraine. As in previous years, we will be sending 40 backpacks to children between the ages of birth to 16 years.

We fill each backpack with

The Role of Poland and Polonia

The Role of Poland and Polonia
in the Current Global Balance of Power
Montante Cultural Center - Canisius College
2001 Main Street

Sunday, November 10, 2019 at 6:00 P.M.

Dr. Jacek Bartosiak, a renowned expert on geo-strategy, will clarify a seeming contradiction: The U.S. is focusing on China and away from Europe, while also deploying U.S. military to Poland.

Russia is threatening world peace by taking territories of other countries, such as Ukraine. Germany has grown into the sole leading force in Europe. A stronger Poland can balance power between Russia and Germany while securing peace and prosperity in Europe. Ukraine in NATO will create a barrier to Russian aggression.

«Нехай наші церковні спільноти будуть місцем, де кожна людина може почуватися захищеною», — Синод Єпископів УГКЦ

«Захист від насильства дітей, неповнолітніх і вразливих осіб є справою кожного члена Церкви — єпископа, священника, богопосвяченої особи, мирянки та мирянина», — стверджують єпископи УГКЦ.

«Синод Єпископів Української Греко-Католицької Церкви, виявляючи чутливість до болісної теми насилля, бажає сприяти її усвідомленню та осмисленню — богословському, психологічному, соціологічному та історичному; спільно з усіма людьми доброї волі шукає способів справедливого трактування явища насильства — з душпастирського, морального, психологічного та юридичного поглядів. Ми прагнемо сказати рішуче «ні» насильству в усіх його проявах. Тільки так ми зможемо справді будувати Христове Тіло й прямувати до святості та «міри повного зросту повноти Христа», — зазначається в Посланні.

У ньому владика стверджують, що часто брутальні прояви сили є знаками страху: власну неміч надолужуємо домінуванням над іншими, пережиті травми компенсуємо своєю владністю — не важливо, велике поле панування чи мале.

MOST OF THE SACRED SHRINES OF PRINCE-GOVERNED RUS-UKRAINE WERE EXPORTED TO RUSSIA – SCIENTISTS

In Lviv, a book titled the "Shrines of Ukraine" ("Svichado" Publishing House), which introduces to the reader the Ukrainian monumental painting, book miniature, iconography, valuable relics and relics of the times of Rus-Ukraine (X-XIII centuries), which were destroyed, stolen and exported mainly to Russia, where they were renamed and the history of their origin was rewritten.

The authors comprehend the sacred heritage of the prince-governed Ukraine, debunking stereotypes and myths of its Northern neighbor, Radio Svoboda \(Liberty\) reports.

The icon "Annunciation of Korsun", which in Russia was called "Annunciation of Ustyug", is an old Russian pre-Mongol icon, painted around 1022, according to various sources, in Kyiv or Korsun. Today it decorates not the Ukrainian Museum, but that of Moscow.

The great sacred relic of the Russian Church - the Vladimir icon - is, in fact, the Vyshgorod Virgin of Tenderness. Until 1155, it was one of the main Ukrainian shrines. So far, the history of the Ukrainian sacred sights in Russia is presented as its property and the history of this icon is written in their own manner. And this is despite the fact that people from all over Rus-Ukraine came to worship the icon of the Virgin of Vyshgorod because they knew about its power and miracles.

Local princes who tried to destroy Kyiv were well aware that the famous Kyivan relics can help strengthen their power, the authors of the study "Shrines of Prince-Governed Ukraine" claim.

In Soviet times, almost all widely worshipped Kyivan icons were transferred to the Tretyakov Gallery (Moscow), including the Icon of Vyshgorod. Since 1999, this icon was granted to the Russian Church.

Art historians Andriy Komarnytsky and Bogdan Zyatyk describe in their books dozens of sacred monuments of the pre-Mongol period, the prince-governed Ukraine, which were removed from Ukraine. Andrei Bogolyubsky, who was the first to rob and destroy Kyiv, did the most to export Ukrainian relics to Russia.

"Bogolyubsky destroyed Kyiv and everything that was sacred to entire Rus," wrote Nikolai Kostomarov. In 1157, Bogolyubsky takes out of Ukraine the Icon of the Virgin of Vyshgorod. He organized the coalition of princes against Kyiv and terribly destroyed it, according to the information recorded in all Chronicles. Some of the shrines were exported to the North. The destruction inflicted by Bogolyubsky was terrible. Nobody had ever caused such destruction before him, it was the principal act of the Northern Prince who was the representative of the later Moscow state and exported numerous shrines. Since then, the looting of Ukraine began," Andriy Komarnytsky said.

"The lion's share was taken out in the XIII century," he said. "In XII, XIII centuries, it was the turn of the removal of the remains of Prince Volodymyr and Olga after the discovery of their grave by Petro Mohyla in the XVII century, the Golden Belt of Varangian Shimon, the relics of the saints. An extremely valuable fragment of the fresco: "the eyes of an unknown Saint" from the Church of Tithes was stolen in 1940 from St Sofia Museum." You could finish this reading at the following link:
